AT BIG FAIR

ALL OF BIG FREE ATTRACTIONS WILL BE PULLED OFF ON SCHEDULED TIME TODAY-IN-CAUSED POSTPONEMENT YES-TERDAY-THIS OBSTACLE OVER-

Nassr's airship, Kearney P. Speedy's ligh dive, Legare's spiral tower and rotechnical display and the other e acts of the Interstate Fair will be pulled off on scheduled time to-day. The inadequate water supply of yesterday which caused the postponement of the two first acts was remedied during the night. All of the wells on the grounds were in op-eration throughout the night with the water supply augmented by six water wagons from the city which hauled water from the nearest city main, through the night.

The hours of the foregoing attractions are: Nassr's opening flight, 11:45 in the forenoon, weather permitting; Speedy's high dive at 1:45 e'clock; 8:30 in the evening, Legare's spiral tower and pyrotechnical act. The two first named acts will be repeated at 5:30 in the afternoon and at 7 o'clock in the evening, respective ly. Unless the winds are too strong. Nassr's flights will surely be made today. His water supply is sufficient now to continue throughout the remainder of the week and his miniature gas factory which he carries with him is in full operation.

To operate the airship, or rather to upply its lifting power which is coma large amount of water is necessary.

Over 5,000 gallons is necessary for speedy's tank. The diving girl's show also requires a large supply and thus in the last days of the preparations, a strain was created on the water sup-

Pittsburg, November 7 .- The announcement that Honus Wagner was to be traded by Pittsburg because he did not give the his best services the past season, is denied by Manager Clarke. It is now considered probable that Wagner's salary will be cut, to be made up at the end of the season by a big bonus in case he delivers the goods. Wagner is not a "has been" yet.

EDDIE COLLINS WEDS.

Philadelphia, November 7 .- Ed die Collins, second baseman on the Philadelphia American League team, which recently defeated the Chicago National League club for the championship of the world, was married yesterday to Miss Mabel Harriet Doane, Arthur M. Lee, Jr., of New York, who was a chum of Collins while the latter was a student in Columbia, acted as best man.

The Lay of the New York Fan.

Yes, the baseball season's over, and the geese are flying South, Giants count their winning gally, Yanks are frothing at the mouth. Glancing o'er season's records, looking o'er the layout now, Nothing seems to bring deep furrows to my pale and thoughtful brow. True, we didn't win a pennant, as we did in days of yore, For the Giants couldn't stop 'em, and the Yankees couldn't score. But the New York fans must chuckle (you can get this at a glance) When they think of the Athletics and of Peerless Leader Chance.

Oh, the Cubs of other seasons! How they made us writhe and curse! How they made us leave the ball yard, moving slowly, a la hearse. Oh, you Sheckard! Oh, you Schulte! Oh, you great three fingered Brown! Oh, you little Shortstep Tinker, idol of Chicago town! We have followed all your doings, we have seen you going back, And tonight we're burning incense at the shrine of Connie Mack. From the Battery to Harlem, rooters do a noisy dance When they think of the Athletics and of Peerless Leader Chance.
